“ I can only think of Aunt Nina Ann and Uncle Fred with a smile on my face. They use to come to our house and pick up all five of us kids and take us home for a few days or even a week. They took us to the car races and spoiled us "wonderfully". I loved it. I can remember Aunt Nina Ann taking me to a candy store and letting me feel the little brown bag clear full of candy. I thought I was in heaven. We thought going to the ball diamond was the greatest thing also. I have only pleasant and some humorous memories of the Gaskill family. I have to say the Gaskill kids coming to the farm was about the funnest thing cousins could ever imagine. Thanks to all of you for being a part of my life. Rest in Peace Uncle Fred, Aunt Nina Ann is very happy right now. God Love You All.
