“ Rod and I didn't know a soul when we moved to Huntington; we were blessed to buy a house right beside Gary and Cindy. They made us feel welcomed in this new town. Gary loved on his family every moment he could. I remember watching him give his grandkids rides on the lawnmower just because they wanted to ride, not because the grass needed to be mowed. Gary had a very sweet heart; he was one of the kindest men I've ever known. He was loved and will be missed by many.
