“ Our prayers continue for you- the loved ones left behind. Know that he is safe and has been welcomed home. Cherish your memories in the years to come for they will comfort and make you stronger. Our regrets today are that we could not be with you during this time due to our own illnesses but know that our hearts feel your pain and are asking God to help you celebrate his life we remember and honor his accomplishments and vision forever. Hugs to you all.

*To the entire Kingrey family I was taken back last night when I heard the news of George passing. I was on duty and I had to pull over to gather my thoughts. We know that your husband, father, grandfather is in the presence of God and that there is a wonderful place for him their.
I pray that God will comfort you in this time of sadness, may God Bless all of you.*

“ Gelee and Family,
I am so very saddened to hear of George's passing. Having grown up in Lancaster, I've known George and Gelee most of my life and remember them as good and decent and kind people. My heart is broken for you. You will be very much in my thoughts and prayers in the coming days and weeks. May the strengthening presence of your loving Heavenly Father embrace and sustain you.

“ George was such a kind-hearted and loving friend and neighbor. I have known him and his lovely wife, Gelee for many years. I was very sorry to hear the news of his passing. I know he has been ill for a long time. Take comfort in knowing that he is in heaven with Jesus to take care of him now.

“ I learned to know the Kingreys in about 1962. George was a such a good man and friend. I will always value the times when I spoke with him. He deserves his rest in Heaven now.

Do not stand at my grave and weep

I am not there. I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow.

I am the diamond glints on snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain.

I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush

I am the swift uplifting rush

Of quiet birds in circled flight.

I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry;

I am not there. I did not die.
