“ George was a great neighbor! Always willing to help out with his new garden tiller and snow blower. We'd trade garden produce and when he'd have extra Kroger fuel points he'd share with us as he knew Steve had a long work commute. We will miss seeing him taking Waldo out and going on his walks. Hugs and prayers to Louann and family. ”

“ George was a lifelong friend, since meeting in the 5th grade in Wenatchee, Washington. We shared our lives in numerous ways, including a lot of fishing and hunting as kids, as well as experiencing the angst, joys, loves and thrills of the teenage years. We joined the Navy together to avoid the draft. Post military service, we went to college, and graduated together.

After college, we went our separate ways. George built a career, life, and family in Indiana, while I did the same in Washington. In our senior years, we reconnected and enjoyed reminiscing, about our youth, reminding each other of shared past events, friends, and experiences, while catching up on our current lives.

As far as I know, George only had one youthful regret in life. He always wished he had joined myself, and our mutual friend, Steve Freeman, on what was a monthlong motorcycle tour of the Western United States, in celebration of our 1966 High School Graduation.

I am going to extremely miss knowing George is there in Indiana, at the other end of a phone, text, or email, ready to engage with thoughts and memories, as well as any comments regarding the Seattle Seahawks/Mariners, and/or Indy Colts and Chicago Cubbies! I will also miss hearing new stories, and seeing pics of his latest fishing adventures, especially his trips to Canada with sons!

He will be very missed by all who knew him, and my heart goes out to his wife, Louanne, and family, which he was very proud of.

“ I remember going over to Aunt Lou and Uncle George's house. My brother and I would go over to their house and play video games and what not with our cousins. Aunt Lou would always bake up something really nice for us kids to enjoy. Uncle George was always there, no matter what was going on. George took an interest in whatever it was we were doing. George was always laughing and smiling about things, when ever I was over there. George's charismatic laugh just brought the whole room together. I remember being a little boy and hearing uncle George's laugh and making me laugh. That's when I realized, that I wanted to be an awesome, fun loving person like George. George's legacy will carry on with everyone that he has come in contact with in life. Rest in peace Sir, we will talk again 🙏.

“ George has been a great father and husband over the years. He'll be missed. George & I always had good conversations. He always had better fish stories to tell than I did. I'll always remember you George. I'll see you again some day.
