“ Condolences to you, Barney, your brothers and sisters and entire family.
Like so many of our classmates, we are now "orphans." Regardless of ages, it's never easy. Cherish the memories, as I'm sure you will.

Take care,

“ Aunt Gerry was my favorite because of her pizazz, always watched her put on makeup at grandpas house upstairs & sometimes she'd put a little on me. I stayed with her & Uncle Dave briefly in summer when Barney was very small. We'd roast hotdogs & when darkness came we'd catch lightning bugs. Maybe just little things to some but huge for me. I loved them & I know they loved me. Special times for me growing up.

I can only imagine the reunion of the family Aunt Gerry was the baby. Funny 😂! She's the last to go & I'm the last also. I know she missed them, LaRee, June, Charleen(my mom) Doris,Jack, Betty & last but not least Gerry. I can hear them now singing & sharing memories! Love ya ! 😊

Her dad, my grandfather would never say goodbye, it was always 'See ya later'!!! 🙌🙌🙌🙌🙌
