“ When I first met Glenda, she welcomed me with her big smile and open arms..her laughter was contagious. She not only treated me like a very special guest in her home, she treated me like family. We had many interesting conversations on life real and metaphysical. She opened my eyes and let me know it's ok to wonder outside the box. Even though we didn't see each other a lot over the years, when I last spoke with her it was just like we never had any time a part. The world is a better place having had Glenda here. I mourn her loss and cherish the memories she gave me. I hope for everyone who loved her, to find peace and joy.
