“ So sorry to hear of Gloria's passing. She gave me many years of support when I made a move from my family home in Lima to Huntington, back in 1963. Met for lunches on our noon breaks at work which I fondly remember doing. You children were always a part of my childrens' lives while living there. Time does move on and it is good to have fond memories to fall back on.....May you each be comforted in God's love through these difficult days.
