“ I will miss Uncle Rex. I remember most the sparkle in his eye, his mischievous smile, and quick wit. Had a great laugh, too. I loved to hear him sing. I didn't know he played guitar as well as one of the pictures depicted. Although I didn't see him often, I enjoyed the times I did get to visit with him. My last memories center around getting to pray with him for the Lord to meet his needs - especially about getting to go back to his home. I think he had to leave too soon. I will miss knowing he is around. Love you, Uncle Rex.

“ I always smile when I think of Uncle Rex. He was a free spirit of sorts & reminded me of Grandpa. I have lots of great memories, he sang at my wedding over 50 years ago, & I was fortunate to get to spend time with he & Joyce when they wintered in Florida. My sister mentioned that he & my Dad were probably playing Euchre about now. My prayer for the family is for peace & happy memories. Lots of love,

“ I worked with Rex just 2 winters ago in Cardiac Rehab and it was a treat. His dry humor and "just cut to the chase" attitude made it fun for us in rehab. He shared several stories of his trips to Florida in his motor home. It was fun to work with Rex and he'll be missed by many I'm sure. You have my condolences.
