As a child, she won Champion in 4-H several times with calves with the help of her brother. In high school, she excelled in bookkeeping and during her senior year, she worked in the office at Union High School, graduating in 1935. Also during high school, she met her future husband Edwin Herman Sieberns, and they married on February 24, 1940 in Indianapolis; he preceded her in death on February 20, 2011 after 70 years of marriage. She and her husband cherished their years of farming on their family's Huntington County farm, and they were very proud of both children they raised. She loved to crochet and quilt, as well as gardening and tending to her flowers, and traveling. Hazel was a lifetime member of Wabash Primitive Baptist Church, her favorite Bible lesson to live by was “do unto others as you would have them do unto you.”

“ There were never weeds in her garden when she was able to be out and about.
Her flowers were always beautiful. She was quite a lady. You have our sympathy.

“ Every school day, when the bus would pick up Tom and Phyllis, I made it a point to look out at the flower beds that Hazel had worked on. Beautiful array of flowers, and colors. I just knew someone in that house had much love. It is sad that I didn't take the time to stop one day, and let her know how much beauty I felt she shared with the World. RIP
