“ I love you like a big sister you were always there for me no matter how your days was going you would always try to make mine better. You love my children and would always talk to them or hold them go show them off as your own sometimes I will miss all of our late night talks and all the advice you would give me on any subject life threw at me. I love you and miss you till we meet again just know I will be right here thinking of you all the time I miss you so much.
