“ It's taken me a while to post on here. I've been shocked, angry, and sad. I wish I could have said more to you and been a better, more present friend. I didn't know how bad things had gotten for you, Jim. You were always in the back of my mind. I was thinking of ideas to help you get on your feet again, to give you a sense of purpose, some focus. I'm sorry, Jim. The world was unkind to you. I hope you have found peace.

“ I don't know if i have the words to describe how i feel about Jim's passing. We were together for 20 years and had some highs and lows but we were always friends. Even after divorcing, we were friends.

Jim always supported me and my dreams Even after the divorce, he encouraged my Photography. During our marriage, he was a good provider and a thoughtful spouse. He was my best friend.

We weren't able to have children, but he had plenty of children he loved. Andrew, Natalie, Gracie, Chase, Tori, Alivia, Ashley, Jesse, Mason, and others I might have missed. He was always the fun Uncle, and he loved be there for all of them.

He always put others first. Heloed whenever he could. He loved his family. When his mom passed away, it hit him hard. He always thought of her and wished to talk to her again. We all mourned her, but Jim did every day of the last 12 years. Now he is with her and is pain free at last.

For the past 7years, he has had many health issues, but he did his best to still be caring and supportive of everyone he loved. He was always in pain, but he still tried to smile. Now, he can rest.

Jim was funny, no, he was hilarious. He was a great story teller and he made everyone smile and laugh. You always felt happy to spend time with him. He wanted to be a comedian or do voices for animated shows, he didn't realize that he was already our comedian.

He loved animals. Especially dogs. Throughout the years we had mostly lab mixes; Legos, Precious, Casey, and Duchess. We also had Hermie and Duke. He loved them all and missed them so much when they were gone.

Jim felt deeply. And I will forever be sad that he's gone. I didn't get to say goodbye and while some might think I shouldn't have had that chance, Jim wouldn't. We checked in on each other often and we were friends.

Rest in peace Jimmy Doo, we will love and miss you forever.
