

James Bryan Litchford

June 9, 1944 - April 10, 2024

James Bryan Litchford, 79, of Huntington, passed away peacefully at 2:47 pm Wednesday, April 10, 2024 at his residence.

James was born in Kentucky in 1944 around the Bowling Green area to Frank Litchford & Julia (Johnson) Marshall, with stepfather Virgil Marshall Sr. James moved to Indiana in the late 60's and resided in Huntington, IN. James was a Navy veteran who served in Vietnam, and then went on to work in the railroad industry, and went into the sheet metal industry. One of his passions was going to local racetracks every summer. James was adored by many people, and would give anything for anyone in need.

James was preceded in death by his sisters, Judy Litchford Nash & Sue Litchford Rainwaters. Surviving family includes brother Virgil Marshall Jr, and his sons James Litchford Jr, Gary Litchford, and Michael Litchford. James will always be loved and missed for how he treated people, from family to strangers. Now it's time to rest father, thank you for the great memories and many lessons.

No Services will be held at this time.
