“ Jan was my friend and neighbor. She welcomed me warmly to the neighborhood when we moved in, by inviting me and other neighbor ladies to her house for coffee so I could meet them all! We had some wonderful long talks. Jan had lots of interesting stories to tell of her childhood, her family, and her loving marriage to Jim. She shared how she grew up on a farm, which was hard work. Her first paid job was shucking corn, a story she told humorously. We shared our love of animals and specifically, our pets! She told me about first meeting Jim, and how he told her later that he knew right then he was going to marry her! She spoke of their life and family together... it was clear they were made for each other.

Jan was one of the sweetest, kindest people I've ever met. My deepest condolences to Jan's family, who were always a lovely example of a close-knit, loving family,
