“ Jeanette and husband Don, already retired from their careers, came back to work with Max & Barbara Garwood and Joan and I at QDP Corporation. Jeanette helped a lot with the order tallying we had going on with our fundraising services business. The work ethic demonstrated by these two senior citizens was an example to us all. Never a complaint. Always a smile. Don, in addition to helping run our packing operation, was always the salesman. Before he came to work with me, he worked at a clothing store in downtown Huntington. I recall going in there once to buy a shirt. I came out with two shirts, two ties and probably something else.

What a couple.

The Christian testimony that Jeanette displayed touch all around her. You will be missed, but we know where you are.

What a sweetheart. Jeanette worked for our company with such a sweet smile, with grace, love and kindness for others. She was such a friend to my Mother-in-law, Ruth. They were 'buddies'. They helped each others as they worked, laughed at each other (and not sharing with the rest of us!). We will miss you dear Jeanette. Praying for Don and family.

Don & Family, So sorry to hear about Jeanette. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. I will sure miss seeing her smiling face at the salon. I know there were days she felt terrible but she never complained.
