“ I worked with Jeff at Wayne Chemical for just a short time. He was always fun to work with. He was actually one of the few people there that I liked. I'm so sorry for your loss, I know he will be missed.

“ I just learned of Jeff's passing and to say I am saddened is an understatement. Jeff topped the list as one of the best co-workers someone could ask for when I worked for Wayne Chemical. I am so so sorry and my deepest condolences are with Melanie and the children.

I also just learned of Jeff's passing. I have struggled with all kinds of emotions today. Jeff was the bright spot of working at Wayne Chemical. His sense of humor was like no other. I so much enjoyed working with him. My heart is broken for Melanie and the children. I know how much Jeff loved you. Praying for you all. Terry Bollenbacher

“ When I married Anne, Jeff was the bonus. Not only did I marry the best woman I could have hoped for, but I also gained a brother in Jeff.

We had the same sense of humor and in many way, Jeff was my soulmate.

Neither he or I were the type to say "I love you man", but Jeff, I have to tell you "I love you man!"

“ Uncle Jeff was always the fun one!!

Jeff always had the child-like adventure in him that made him seem more like a peer growing up than the boring adults. He would always have a litany of games at his finger tips no matter who ,what, when, or where we were. I remember winning gold medals at the “Olympics” that he created at our pond in the summers. The confidence that I built from those “silly” games compounded to the accomplishments that I continue to be blessed with today.

As a father of two young boys today I always remember to stay young at heart, goofy, and remember I am a child at heart. Always yearning to learn from the awe inspiring world around me. I learned that from watching Jeff growing up.

R. I. P. Uncle Jeff
