I just want everyone to know how much respect I hold for Jeff he was a true friend that I could always count on. Very sad to lose Jeff he was going to meet me at my new job and when he did not return calls I was simply mistified!!! When a solid friend of 25 years does not your call. Simply did not make sense!! Just a honor to have Jeff as a true friend. Simply heartbroken. He was a man of his word and I greatly going to miss him. Always made me laugh. God bless you brother. James Brown

“ I meet Jeff at the Moose Lodge of Shelbyville. He always had a smile on his face. We would go home to find a bag of hedge apples and knew Jeff had been there. I never got to show Jeff what I can do on the golf course but maybe we can one day on the course in heaven. Rest in peace my friend.

Very special person to me as his surrogate Mother. Always willing to help me with whatever I needed and smiled all the while!!! He talked to me often about his family, as recent as March 9, I ask him if he had visited his family recently and he said "no, I really need to do that!" Talked about moving to Florida and numerous other things. He was a very hard worker and told me he had been cutting wood on the golf course. Bear Chase had a special place in his heart!!! Praying for ALL the family and that OUR loss is HEAVENS gain!!! May God provide the comfort that each of you need right now and in the days ahead!!! God Bless!!!
