“ One of my earliest memories of my Dad was when he traumatized with a ware wolf mask at Halloween. My Dad was the best at pranks and such a jokester. We’ve all learned from him. Not only that, he was always there for us. He was a smart man who loved his entire family. He would have done anything for any one of us. His great-granddaughters were his pride and joy. They had him wrapped around their little fingers. He is going to be greatly missed by everyone of us. Life will never be the same without him here. I do believe he has been rejoined with his mom, dad and brother Mark in heaven. Until I join you some day you’ll always be in my heart.
