“ Jerry will remain in my heart forever; he treated me with a kindness beyond measure. We were blessed with senior love that mirrored young love without all the challenges and hardships young couples face. We were one. We genuinely sparkled when together and suffered when apart. I am currently devastated with this loss as I loved him so deeply but also feel comfort he is no longer struggling or in pain but is safe in the arms of God. I will always be in awe of the extent of his love for me and the attentiveness, love, kindness and generosity of our friends and family during this huge loss yet celebration of such a great man's life.

“ Jerry was a friend and helper to all. We were born on the same day in 1957 and he always claimed...I was older. :) He was older! Sherry and I spent many good times with him at JD's. Teri came along and lit his life on fire. They were so in love. The four of us had some good times. We share our deepest sympathy with Teri as well as Jerry's Family. So sad. - Sherry and Steve Beavans

“ I have know Jerry (and Terry) literally my entire life, as our parents were best friends when we were growing up. Our houses were one street apart and only a few houses down. It is so difficult losing friends that have been a part of one's life for so long. Jerry was a man of many talents and obviously took pride in his "handyman" work. I was so happy to see him find a home and great love with Teri. Thoughts and prayers to Teri, the family and his many, many friends. 💕💕
