“ I got to know Jerry when he worked at Majestic several years ago as a painter. He was a good co-worker, and our paths crossed a few times over the years since then and he always made a point of talking with me. His family has my sympathy. Rest in peace, Jerry.

“ I meet Jerry at AEP through John I was The the Durango girl. Jerry would joke around and then I would bring lunch for John and Jerry would answer the parts door and take the lunch and then tell John that I brought lunch but he ate it .Jerry ended up painting the bumper of my red Durango. He would also tell John to be good or he would not have a good meal then if John had not gotten a haircut he would say John you better get back on her good side . Sorry for your family's loss, you are in our prayers.

“ I could always count on a delightful time when spending the evening with Uncle Jerry. I loved the stories from days gone by. He had the ability to take me back to childhood days. My recent chats on Aunt Pat's porch will be treasured moments. I loved him dearly. What an inspiration he was to me!
