“ Jerry was one of the “church kids” at Congregational Christian Church (United Church of Christ). I have so many happy memories of Jerry in our youth group and Sunday School classes. My sympathy goes out to the family.

“ When I met Jerry the 1st time I immediately knew where Ryan's laugh and sense of humor came from. I thought, "I like this guy. He's cool!" My most recent memory is the summer Ryan, Ashley, Trevor, and Jerry came over to swim at the house we lived in at the time. Turns out, Jerry knew the original owners, and shared a lot of good memories about the place. Including picking up his prom date from that very house. I thought, " I love this guy. He's still cool!" That was an awesome day with people I consider family.

Please know you are all in the thoughts and prayers of the Owens family.

*Love you guys,
Matt*

“ I can still remember when Jerry, Barry, Carlos and I would play together at Shideler reunions and wiener roasts. There was always a lot of fun when we would all be together.
Also remember many times getting together with Jerry and Sherry at their house to play and spend great times. I was thinking about him just the other day while thinking of home in Indiana. I will miss him. Glad we had a good talk together at my dads funeral.
