

Jess D. Felts

June 6, 1988 - September 4, 2024

Jess D. Felts, 36, of Huntington, passed away peacefully in his sleep Wednesday, September 4, 2024, at Hickory Creek of Huntington.

Jess was born on June 6, 1988, in Bluffton, IN, the son of Kathleen "Kathy" (Endsley) and Daniel McCune. He graduated from Norwell High School with the class of 2007. Jess worked as a cashier for Wal-Mart of Bluffton for 3 years.

Jess had an ornery and playful personality that kept people on their toes and brought a lot of joy to others. Although Jess had an amazing relationship with his mother and some may call him a momma's boy, his love for humans had no boundaries. Jess was the kind of person that never met a stranger and looked forward to making new friends. His passion for the comic strip Peanuts, especially Charlie Brown was no secret. Jess liked working on crafts, watching Colts Football and singing with his talented voice. Jess truly made an impact on others and his legacy will live on.

Survivors include his loving parents, Kathleen "Kathy" and Daniel McCune of Huntington, IN; sisters, April (Phil) Rogers of Huntington, IN, Bambi (Scott) Krumma of Indianapolis, IN, Cristina Kern of Ossian, IN; nephews, Madison, Ethan; and nieces, Sydney, Olivia. He is preceded in death by his grandparents, Verne & Betty Endsley, and Wayne & Betty McCune.

Visitation will be from 1:00 pm - 3:00 pm Sunday, September 8, 2024, at Bailey-Love Mortuary, 35 West Park Drive, Huntington, IN. Funeral services will be held at 11:00 am Monday, September 9, 2024, at Bailey-Love Mortuary with Pastor Ross Morgan officiating. There will be one hour of visitation prior to the service. “ We knew him as Scooter, and he was one of our TikTok family's favorite people. Always kind and caring, he brought humor and empathy every time he visited our trivia lives. He always said that he felt very at home with us, and we embraced him fully. My heart goes out to his friends and family-and Scooter, may your star shine brightly in Heaven; you will be missed bigly...

“ We are so heartbroken. We knew him as Scooter and we was apart of our online trivia family. He loved entertainment and music trivia. We are grieving from losing him. The last time he came to a show was August 31st, and we will always remember that day because he expressed he was going thru a difficult time. There was such a an outpouring of love and encouragement sent to him that night...I hope he knew how much we loved and cared for him. He will be terribly missed.

“ Jess. My heart is broken. I wish I could be at your memorial. You were a close friend to me and I wanted to date you so bad but considering I was female (weird for you, I know lol and we would joke about this often) and we lived so far it couldn't happen. Maybe in a different life. Please say hello to my Dad, I miss him so much. I am scared of what's on the other side so I want you to be the first person to greet me there and give me a big hug to let me know it's okay. I love you, so, so much. More than I ever expressed to you when you were here and for that I will forever regret. You were such a kind, warm, wonderful person who never had a negative thought about anyone. I miss you, so much.

“ My condolences go out to the family/friends of Jess. I was one of the nurses that took care of Jess. He being only a couple years older than my children, I looked at him as a son and wanted nothing but the best for him. He was ornery and at times cantankerous :-) but Jess had a heart that was huge and would give you anything he had. I will miss you. Rest peacefully my friend.

“ Jess is a beautiful soul that the world missed out on. His kind heart, demure, and everything about him made him lovable. His journey wasn't always the easiest and always gave him challenges, but he tried to overcome them the best he could. His death, though it hurts me a lot, I know my buddy is no longer prisoner to his own body, and free to go wherever his soul now desires. I hope that he truly knows how much the people he encountered loved him, even if some of them were briefly. He wanted to be loved and buddy, you were. I hope you find peace wherever you currently are Jess and know that I love you so much my friend. To his family, my condolences to you during this difficult time. It was an honor and pleasure being his friend.
