“ Zach will always have a special place in my heart and my memories of the time I was the associate pastor at St. Peter's First United Church of Christ. I will never forget him running as fast as he could down the aisle at the time for God's Children and saying " Wait for me Jesus!" When asked why he called me Jesus he simply said because he loves me and I know Jesus loves me so he must be Jesus. Yes I did love you then, have loved you and prayed for you over the years when during my prayer time you came to mind and will always love you Zach because you were and still are a child of God. May you rest in his peace and may the Comforter Jesus promised to send come and comfort your family members now that you journey of faith has brought you to your eternal home where you will be waiting when our journeys end and there we will be reunited and I hope to hear you sing once again Jesus Loves me that you learned long ago at St. Peter's First United Church of Christ and that you sang at the rely for life many years ago.

“ When he got in a bike accident a couple months ago and scraped up his face, he was hospitalized and I drove his sister Allison to the hospital to see him. That was the first time I met him and, despite the stitches in his lip, he still had a smile on his face and encouraging words for momma and sis(: you will be missed Zach <3
