“ My first memories of Joyce are from when I was a very little girl and we would be at the Smiths for a family party. She was always so kind and laughing all of the time...those same positive traits continued always. What a lovely and loving cousin to have! Condolences to the entire family.

“ I had the pleasure to work along side Joyce, as a merchandiser, at the Meijer store on Illinois Rd. She showed me the ropes in the movie dept., even though we worked for different companies. Joyce had a wonderful personality. The pain she suffered is now gone, and is once again with the love of her life. RIP Joyce.
