“ Punk was one of best friends during Junior High and High School. I have so many happy memories of hanging out at his house. Larry and Zena were always very cool to us kids. He was my Best Man when I got married. Punk was fun, funny and I don't recall that we ever got into an argument. And even though our paths went different ways, we'd catch-up once a year and just pick up our conversation like no time had passed. I will miss him everyday.

“ All I can say is Larry was one of the best people I have ever known. Had nothing but respect for this man. Have know him since grade school and had never heard a bad word towards him or about him. The world lost a true warrior of dignity.

“ Punk was like a brother to me. We grew up since we attended Lancaster elementary and went all the way through to our high school graduation at Huntington North. Just about every weekend I was over at his house. We would go down the road to Vic's house and ride dirt bikes or the slug bug she had. As we grew older we went separate ways, he went to college and I joined the army. When I would come home, I would visit him and catch up on things. Punk was fun, entertaining and we had all kinds of fun growing up and yes getting into trouble...lol. what kids didn't. I'm gonna miss Punk but I know he is in better hands and relieved of the pains he had. He will always be in my mind and heart as well as his family that brought me into their house and lives as us kids grew. Rest in peace Punk and I'll see you again in our next life time. I love you buddy and I will miss ya guy.
