

Lily Pearl Crockett

January 14, 1917 - January 10, 2013

Lily Pearl Crockett, age 95, of Huntington, died peacefully Thursday (January 10, 2013), at Norwood Health and Rehabilitation Center, Huntington.

Graveside services will be held in the Marion National Cemetery, Marion, Indiana at a later date.

Those desiring, may make memorial contributions to Family Life Care in care of Bailey-Love Mortuary, 35 West Park Drive, Huntington, Indiana, 46750.

Lily was born January 14, 1917, in Marble Falls, Texas to Andrew and Ora Pearl (Graham) Wagenfuhr. She graduated in 1935 from Marble Falls High School in Texas. Lily married Roy Crockett on July 3, 1943 in Lebanon Missouri and they later made their home in Wabash, Indiana.

Lily loved her home state of Texas and her cat, Scarlett.

Lily is survived by her son - David W. (Cheryl) Crockett of Warren; two granddaughters; Jennifer (Erich) Eller of Huntington and Laura Crockett of Fort Wayne and two great-grandchildren; two brothers - Trueman Wagenfuhr of Alamogordo, New Mexico and Rudy (Barbara) Wagenfuhr of Eureka, California; two sisters - June (Keith) Sorenson of LaCrescenta, California and Shirley (Mike) Coletta of Yuma, Arizona; Three brothers - Graham, Dick and Wayne Wagenfuhr and four sisters - Lynn Bray, Lucille Cunningham, Wanda Goldberg and Gloria Wagenfuhr preceded her in death.

Cemetery Details

Marion National Cemetery

1700 E. 38th St.
Marion, IN 46953

Tribute Wall

SH

“ Sherrymiller lit a candle in memory of Lily Pearl Crockett

---

sherrymiller - January 18, 2013 at 05:45 AM