“ We lived next door to Tom and Linda and the boys for only 18 months, but our friendship has endured over the miles and 35 years. What wonderful memories we made, laughter spent and hearts bonded. I am holding you ALL in my heart dearly and uplifting you in prayers for comfort as you navigate your grief. Great grief is the price we pay for great love. Do not be afraid to linger as long as needed in your grief, for it is also holding on to deep love.
