“ My dearest Aunt Linda, where do I start in my young age it was always me Tim and Kevin in your back yard . Many nights you would let me stay for dinner or spend the night, and you would fix mash potatoes, corn, and cubed steak or Salisbury steak. We would have so much fun. And to say I was spoiled was an understatement. You were always there to talk about any problems I may have no matter what. You never judged me, always gave me a hug and said it will get better. I am gonna miss you so much, I can only imagine how beautiful you are in heaven because you where a doll in heaven
