“ Linda loved my kids and spoiled them every chance she got. She was always on social media tagging JZs Lawn Care for Justin to get lawns and giving the girls toys and treats. She was always kind and we always looked forward to seeing her.

“ I met Linda on The Auction Site Several Years Ago. She was a kind and sweet lady. I would talk to her alot about different things. One time I was in a wheel chair for 6 weeks and I live in an apartment and couldn't make it down the steps and she bought a box of food to me and My husband. I remember when she used to bring one of her chihuahua to the auction every week that dog was her baby. Unfortunately that dog passed away and she was heartbroken. She had other chihuahua to but that one was her baby. I will truly miss our conversations and her smile and she was very funny to. Prayers go out to her family. R.I.P. My Beautiful friend. I will miss you.
