“ My heartfelt sympathies to the family. Louise is such a lovely lady and raised an equally wonderful family. She then welcomed an entire additional family into her fold with open arms and equal love to share. Thoughts and prayers are with you as you celebrate her life today.

“ Louise was a very special lady-- always kind to me and my family- I remember when my husband passed away-- here came this little 84 year young lady with a dish of food that she made for me and my family-I can still see her in my living room that day with her caring face-- I will never forget that day --it meant so much that she cared and I will never forget her kindness... “ Grandma Louise...yes I still call her grandma ;), she is so admired by all of us. Such a classy and still beautiful lady. Her kind heart and gentle way and wonderful laugh could lighten up a room. Now she is resting in peace in heaven with all the loves of her life who have entered before her. She is smiling down on her family...she is their blessed Angel. Say hi to grandpa Wohlford for us ...he was also an inspiration. Prayers for all that all your memories give you strength. From Tracey Sleighter (Coble)
