“ I met Mrs. Lee around eight years ago...my boys and I mowed for her and helped her out with odd jobs. She was always a pleasure to talk and work for. I always had to make sure her front shrubs were short enough so she could see down the street while sitting on her front porch. Prayers to her and the family.

“ Our Aunt Madelin was the sweetest person I have ever known. She had a wonderful sense of humor right up to the end of her precious life here on earth. I know she is happy still on the other side, with her loved ones who have passed over before her. She is well loved by those of us who are left behind on this side. We will all be united one day in the Love and Light of God. We love you Aunt Madelin.
