“ I will never forget the first conversation I had with Manette. I had called to see if my son Nick was at the house. After a bit of confusion it was determined that "Oh I was Billy's mom. Which was news to me. That was the first of many conversations we had about our boys (now married men). Cathy Anderson

“ Jason, Lauren, Ryan and Steve - I'm so sorry for your loss. Manette put a lot of love into this world, and Joe and I remember her so fondly. She was so gracious and warm, and had a way of making someone feel special and important, like she was glad you were a part of her life. I know she's going to be an awesome angel, because she was always really great at keeping an eye on all of us -- including somehow knowing exactly the trouble we'd all been up to at any given moment. Please know we're thinking of you all and sending big hugs and comforting thoughts your way. Love, Nikki & Joe
