No one could be more comfortable in the presence of Jesus than our dear Maradel. She was and is a saint. I never knew anyone who so consistently showed the Fruit of the Spirit: Love, Joy, Peace, Patience, Kindness, Goodness, Faithfulness and Self-control. I was blessed to have her in my life.

“ I remember meeting Maradel for the first time back in the 80's. The tone of her voice when she would say Lonnie's name was like honey to my ears...a beautiful sweet sound. I ran into her later in the halls of The Heritage of Huntington. I watched and admired her as she made certain Jack was comfortable, stayed as social as possible, and as he struggled to eat some days. Through it all Maradel continued to share a warm genuine smile. Thank you for some life lessons Maradel. Enjoy your new home good and faithful servant...
