“ Dear Jerry, Missy; Kandi and Tricia.....

Thinking of all of you this morning and knowing Marcia has gone on to meet the Saviour.

She suffered with the cancer and was a valiant survivor a long period of time, but now it was her time and our time to help you know we have prayed for the best for her. YOU all gave her your best and now today and tomorrow as you know the separation come, may your hearts be lightened by those who care for you all. May the peace that comes from God the Father in Heaven be near each of you.

“ Marcia and I were friends many years ago before we had our kids. Jerry and my late husband Alan were good friends for years. Marcia and I reconnected when she was diagnosed with cancer and I tried to keep in touch with her. She was one of the sweetest gals I know, I'm sure she will be missed by her family. I wish I would have been there more for her. She died on my birthday, I will always remember her, love you Marcia.

“ Mom of moms, Housewives of housewives! Mighty Marcia! She done it all, the good old fashioned way, everything from scratch. She put her soul into everything she's ever done. She raised 3 of my best friends, all awesome, strong and thoughtful girls. One of my favorite things about Marcia was how she was this sweet, tiny, happy little woman, that was always positive and appeared to be as fragile as glass..but cross her or her family and this fury strength would crawl out of her. Even in later years, she, as tiny and fragile as she appeared, Had more energy and more strength than a lot of people I know., myself included. There wasn't a lot she couldn't do or figure out how to do. She has always been very self sufficient and creative. And so loving. My heart breaks for all who loved her. She was an amazing woman for sure.
