“ I remember Margaret from the McClelland's store downtown. My mother Marian Baker worked at Woolworths so I spent a lot of time downtown. Margaret was always friendly and well-dressed. Saw her often at Richard's Restaurant and we always spoke. A classy lady even in her later years!

“ Margaret dated my Grandpa Alex for a while and she was always so upbeat and sweet. She loved watching us swim in the pool and help us out when we needed it. There were a lot of us in the family but she remembered all of our names every year we came to Indiana. She was a joy and will greatly be missed.
