Margaret was born on August 14, 1941 in Olive Hill, Kentucky, the daughter of Zearl and Hazel (Duncan) Fultz. She married Leonard Fugate on January 24, 1959 in Gas City and worked in assembly at Wabash Magnetics. She worked at Little Blessings daycare in Huntington for 10 years and attended Etna Avenue Wesleyan Church. Margaret loved to crochet and go fishing, especially at their cabin on Sechrist Lake. She dearly loved her grandchildren and was a special aunt, also very close with her nieces and nephews.

Survivors include her husband of 58 years - Leonard E. Fugate of Huntington; two daughters - Pamela (Michael) Borgman of Clarksville, Tennessee and Sheila (Kenneth) Duke of Elwood; a son - Gene E. Fugate of Laotto; twelve grandchildren - Mandy Borgman, Lindsay Hopkins, Stephanie Borgman, Brittany Jacks, John Borgman, Geoffrey Fugate, Tiffany Jacks, Elizabeth Borgman, Joshua Ray, Peyton Fugate, Kyler Fugate, and Patrick Fugate; thirteen great grandchildren - Emily Borgman, Ethan Ketron, Kynleigh Ketron, Levi Hopkins, Charlotte Hopkins, Addyson Jacks, Paxton Jacks, Finley Wright, Aurie Martin, Lilly Fredericks, Dayton Fugate, Paisley Fugate, and Evan Ray; a sister – Wanda (James) Holdren of Marion; and a brother - Bob (Diane) Fultz of Tazwell, Tennessee. Her parents precede her in death.

“ We only messaged each other once because at the time I knew my friend Mandy McIntosh was in danger, so in desperation I messaged Margret and she promised me she would call her. She made me feel calm and reassured. I later heard from Mandy and all was well again. From that moment on I realised how special this woman was. Mandy always spoke fondly of her and as to why I knew I could call on her for help. Not only to my friend but how she enriched everyone she met. A unique soul, if your lucky will meet only once in a lifetime. To her family I know you have lost a great family member. My thoughts are with you and may she rest in peace. 🙏

“ Remember growing up and enjoying dancing to "Rock & Roll Music" by Chuck Berry. We'd replay over & over that little 45 record and dance till we were exhausted. Also remember playing my guitar while Margaret sang "Geisha Girl". Loved her so much, and know we will soon be together again in Heaven. Hope she's enjoying visiting with her Mom & Daddy now. She had missed them so much. Love from your brother-in law and sister-in -law, Larry & Rosie Spence.
