“ Dear Gary,
We were so very saddened to learn of Margaret's passing. May our God wrap His loving arms around you and your family now and in the days that lie ahead. When our life is over on earth, it is a new beginning for us in heaven.

“ To the most amazing wife on the entire earth! I want to let you know that the time we had together seems like just a minute in time. Honey, you molded me into the person that I am today. You still are the glue holding the family together. Melissa is really keeping her promise to you, always checking on me, picking me up and taking me places, and feeding me. Honey, you really did raise a great kid. Shh, don't tell her this, honey, but she is very strict—I cannot get away with anything. And Nick and Matt are dealing with everything in their own special way. And Breanna has been calling every day to check on me, and she comes over when she can. When Cory is home from work, she lets me talk to Skyton, Colstyn, Branson, and Jelly Bean on the walkie-talkie thing on the phone. And tonight, she is making your favorite taco salad. She said she would bring me some to eat for you. They are all doing good, honey. I know how proud you are of all the grandkids. You talked about them with everyone we came into contact with; you always found a way to mention them in every conversation.

There was not anyone who ever came into contact with you that could help falling in love with you. You just had that special glow that people saw in you. Honey, I just want to tell you that everyone at Magnum has been so great to me and the whole family. Everyone at Magnum loved you, honey. And John and Rita have been calling me every day, even when you were in the hospital, checking on you. They miss you so much. Lots of the other Magnum drivers have been texting to check on me. We sure do work for the best company ever! I will be going back to work soon, and when I do, it's going to be so, so, so hard for me not having you in the passenger seat telling me to slow down, that I'm too close to that car, to back off.

Honey, I will never say goodbye. I will tell you what Nick said: it's not goodbye, Grandpa; it's I will see you later. Honey, I love and miss you so very, very much. I know I don't have to ask you this; you're going to do it anyway. Please keep looking after all of us. Honey, if anyone ever deserved wings, it's you! Honey, there will never, ever, ever be another woman in my life. I have three girls in my life now, and I make you that promise in front of God and whomever reads this. Now, honey, as I wrap this letter up, I just wanted to tell you that you will always be my heartbeat, my forever, my one and only love. I have not always been the best husband in the world, and you may not have agreed with my choices, but you supported me. So if I ever made you mad, I'm so sorry. I love you so much, honey. Until we meet again.

“ My prayers go out to Gary and Melissa, the grandchildren (she loved and was happiest with them) the rest of the family and all who loved her. I can't believe my cousin, Margaret isn't here but with God now. If I'm finding it hard to believe, I can only imagine what you all are going through. Margaret & her brothers & sisters grew up by me. We all played with each other growing up. Margaret & my sister were closest in age; but as aging me & Margaret stayed close through Facebook. I loved how she was so happy and seemed carefree, even when dealing with serious events. Her family was her pride & joy. I will miss her until we meet again in heaven. I know my Aunt Dorothy (her mom) will have her arms around her and guide her to meet all the other angels (many her siblings) She has her halo & wings now; and is free from earths problems & pain. Her sweet memories will keep with us. Prayers & love to all.
