“ I was on CRHP team 46 with Mark. I'm greatly saddened to hear of his passing. I remember Mark being very proud of his vocation as a funeral director. I think it was truly his calling. He spoke of the satisfaction it gave him to serve families in their time of grief. One thing that stuck out to me was his ability to remember the names of families he had served and met through his job. If you mentioned a name, chances were he knew who you were talking about.

“ I remember meeting Mark my first day at DO McComb and Sons, he was so bubbly and full of energy and said he was not the low man anymore. Mark was truly a dedicated funeral professional and treated the families that he served with dignity and respect. I remember our trips to the US Air Force museum. Mark gave me a Ronald Reagan tie clip which I still have displayed on my book shelf. I know Mark will be missed by his family and friends. My he find some peace.

“ Oh. I'm so sad to hear this. I worked with Mark at Feeney Hornack as an intern in 1995. He was a great mentor and treated me like an adult instead of a dumb intern. He always talked about Ginny and Ryan with pride. RIP Mark. ❤️

“ Mark Shrader, funeral director, my friend, good person. I struggled to decide which memory to add here about Mark. I have so many. One day I came to work and he had a box. In it, was a baby bunny. He had rescued it outside the funeral home. He was worried it would be hurt. He took such good care of that baby bunny. He had a enormous heart. I loved to hear his belly laughs. He never let me forget about the time I was pulled over for driving to "Slow" he would belly laugh and tease me and said "you should have told the officer you thought you were leading a procession." another big belly laugh. He would call me just to check on me to see how I was doing. We would have long conversations about just about everything and sometimes about nothing but to just laugh at our experiences at the funeral home. Like the "beeping lady." Mark was so intelligent. He could tell you about any US president, off the top of his head, anything and everything about each one. He loved History and loved to read about it and the presidents. He loved his country. He would break out in little songs and change the words around the funeral home to keep it upbeat on stressful days. Mark will be missed greatly. Ginny and Ryan, he loved you so much. Please know I am praying for you.
