“ Erin, I'm so sorry to hear about Marty. I remember her tearing up my beds at Millers and making me make them over so she could bounce a quarter off of them. So glad when fitted sheets came. Take care and God bless.

“ Erin and family, I am so sorry to hear of Marty's death. I have fond memories of her. She was a mentor to me as my QA nurse when I was a young Director Of Nurses. I respected her professionalism, honesty and knowledge of LTC. we had some good laughs as she always had a funny story to share. You have my sympathy.

“ Erin and family. I was saddened to hear your mom passed away. I have fond memories of her as my QA nurse many years ago. Her humor and professional attitude and knowledge of LTC made her a good mentor for me as a young DON. You have my heartfelt sympathy.

“ Erin, I was so sorry to hear about your mom. We had just spoken about her on friday. I know your faith is strong and as nurses we truly in our head know what is best- but still doesn't make it any easier. I know you loved her very much just in the way you took care of her with recent ups and downs in her health. I will pray for you and your family during this time of loss. Know that your family at DVC cares. If you need anything- I am here to listen. Hugs- Angie Turner-Brown NP and friend DVC.
