hard to believe such a wonderful person has left his place on Earth with his friends and family and gone on to his eternal place in heaven about to watch over us all. may peace be his friends and family during the time, but remember he has gone but will not be forgotten.

I just learned of his passing. I am a neighbor on N. Jefferson St. Talked to him a year or so ago and thought, he is a nice guy. I always looked for him to wave as nearby neighbors will do. My condolences to you, his family & friends. A friendly and good neighbor is our loss. Archie Lintz

“ So sorry for your loss, while I have not kept in touch with Marv the last 40 years we were very good friends and school mates, we grew up a block away and we were even born on the same day, he always liked to say he was 2 hours older than me. Marv was truly one of the east end gang. So many memories, I wish we would have had more time to reminisce. I will miss him.

“ Sharon and family,

Marvin will be remembered for his kind heart and wonderful smile. He was always willing to help anyone. The last time I saw Marvin was when my Dad died 6 years ago. Marvin was at the Bob Evans Restaurant and met my cousin who had just gotten into town from Texas and was not sure how to get to my parents house. Marvin took the time and brought them to the door.

You are in my thoughts and prayers,
