“ Dear Don and Family:

I was so sorry to hear of your loss of Mary. May God bless you all at this time and in the times to come. I often think back to the early times in Defiance when you lived on Summit and your folks would bring you and Paul over to our house to play. Lots of water over the dam since then. Take care of yourself and live with the memories.

“ The Fischers and Morrie & I had a very long friendship and many memories. One which comes to mind was when each of us had two children and winter was keeping us inside with them for days. We both always ironed on Tuesdays (everything needed ironing in those days) and so on this particular Tuesday, Mary packed their kids, her ironing board and iron and came over to my house on Stephan Street. We both set up our ironing boards in the living room and the kids started playing together happily right away. We had lunch together and when we finished our ironing chore (and all of our visiting with each other), she packed up and went home. What a lovely way to pass a nasty day. Mary and I got a chore done while chatting and our kids got to play together.
