What a wonderful tribute to Melba. Such a pleasure to know Melba and Kenny from the Nazarene Church. They have shared much wisdom in Sunday School class and given much in their servanthood for the Lord during their journey of life. Kenny and family, may you feel the continued presence of the Lord who gives us HOPE. He NEVER FAILS, IS ALWAYS ON TIME, ALWAYS FAITHFUL. Prayers for all of you as our Melba is breathing celestial air. The Lord gives strength, grace, assurance and His Mercies are NEW EVERY MORNING. It was the CROSS that made the difference, so cling to His promises and JOY WILL COME IN THE MORNING. We both were blessed to call you friends in Christ. “ was so saddened today to hear of melba's passing. no one called me from my family to tell me of this so i never found out till today Saturday April 2nd and then searched and saw i missed the funeral which was also today at 11 am.
ken and melba are my cousins and I've known them both and reo, Renee, Rodney and rusty all my life.
melba was such a nice person, so kind hearted and always helping others. ken is the same way such a nice guy and always went the extra mile to help you if he could.
i just talked with melba a week or so ago over her birthday. she is missed already and will always be missed. i always enjoyed being around melba and ken and all the kids when we was all younger (us kids) and even after we all grew up i still saw melba and ken melba was there for my mom when my mom was sick before she too passed away in 18.
it saddens me i never knew about her passing away till way after the funeral today, how i would've loved to be there for the family and to see her one more time.
to all the family, ken, reo, Renee, Rodney, and rusty, my deepest sympathies for the loss of your mother and to Kenny for the loss of your wife.

“ Melba (along with her husband Kenneth) devoted her life to be the worlds best grandparent. She attended Basketball games and swim meets and now with great grandchildren - it's all about basketball again. She was very present in the lives of her family.

She enjoyed being active and attending the YMCA. She enjoyed the friendships she made with the women in her exercise classes.

She (and Kenneth) were hosts to countless swim gatherings. Her pool was open to anyone that needed a refreshing dip on a hot day.

She also was there if anyone needed a ride to a doctors appointment or a trip to the store.

She will be missed by her family, her friends, and her community.
