“ Deepest sympathy to Michelle's family. Michelle and I were friends in high school. Together, we spent a lot of fun weekend days out and about in and around Huntington. During those high school years we "hung out" together, it was easy to see that Michelle was a free spirit that needed space to fly. Now free of all earthly constraints, I hope she has found her path and soars through the heavens spreading her beautiful smile and effervescent laugh. Rest in peace my old friend.

“ A remembrance letter to Michelle for her family.

Dearest Michelle,

I hope as you are looking down from Heaven that you are able to see how much you were loved on this earth. It has been a long battle for you and yours the last few years and you are free now. You have been lost to many of us for some time as your fought your battle. For the people who understand what you were up against, we know you were Carlene and Freeman's baby girl, Jennifer and Adam's Mother, my beloved Aunt, a Grandmother, a Sister, a Friend, a Mentor, a Teacher and more.

We didn't all get to know the woman on the other side of your battle...and for those who didn't get to, I'd like to tell them that I spent my childhood and young adult years joyfully in your shadow. You were 7 years older than me. I got your hand me downs and wore them proudly. I rode your bicycle. You had a Mousetrap game that we played by the hour. We explored the sunken gardens and went swimming at Lake Claire. You pushed me on the swing in the big tree in your backyard. You took me to the movies and the little store for candy. You taught me to play a keyboard. One of my fondest memories was when your sister Stephanie was in beauty school. She practiced her hair styling on you, you practiced on me, and I got to style the hair of the troll doll. All was right with my world in the moments I spent in your company.

Your smile, your laugh, your music, your talent and your artistry are what I will choose to remember. The beautifully knit, multi-color stitches of your hand made little children's ski sweaters are as vivid in my memory as when I looked at them so many years ago... The tiny stitches of your crocheted pieces... The tones of the organ as you skillfully played every song. Your free spirit as you danced - the smile that beamed across your face as you heard a song that you loved... My fond memories of you are too numerable to list. I babysat your children. Your daughter babysat mine. May you rest in peace, Missie. You truly were loved.

For Michelle, My Belle – from Kris

MISS ME, BUT LET ME GO

*When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free.*

*Miss me a little but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love,
That we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.*

*For this is a journey
That we must all take,
And each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.*

“Michelle and my son Bob Guest were seniors and were working the High School Radio Station -- they convinced the teacher that they were a married couple. I do believe the teacher learned they were teasing him. My sympathy to her children and sisters.

“My sympathy to the family for this untimely death. Michelle was a high school classmate, so I certainly feel she was too young! May God provide peace and comfort to all her loved ones.
