“ I met Nancy before she and Ronnie married. I remember the births of Dawn and David. My heart is broken with the loss of all these people whom I knew and loved. To those left, please carry the legacy of your beloved aunt and never forget she loved you all. We talked for two hours last year on the phone and all she talked about were you all and Ronnie. She loved you all. RIP my darling e

Nancy was our Dad's neighbor at Oakbrook so we got to know her well. Will forever be grateful for her looking after Dad and keeping us well informed. It was fun seeing her face light up when we took her goodies. May she rest in peace, with a book in her hands and her kitty cat slippers on her feet. 💜
