“ I have fond memories of my great aunt Jeanette and great uncle Ralph. Whether sharing childhood Christmases at great grandma Johnson's or my grandma Lula Belle's, she was always fun to be around. It was always a wonder to watch her and my grandma talk to each other as it was hard to believe two people could talk at the same time and still understand one another.

I'm certain that her love of history and genealogy played a role in me wanting to better understand the people we come from. My son knows where to find himself in her geanealogy book that sits on our bookshelf. Her work on that will pay off for generations. Tonight, as my family snuggles up to watch a movie on the couch, we'll pull up the warm afghan she crocheted for our wedding and think of her and many special memories.

*Love,
Ashley, Leah, and Eli Fox*
