“ was saddened to hear of pam's death. had a lot of great times with her and Donny through the many years. my prayers have been plenty for Donny and the grandkids for their sorrow and great loss. I will cherish the many memories we all had together. what a great cousin pam was, she'd always tell ya her opinion and she was honest when ya messed up. I've been praying a lot for you Donny and know this is hard for you. may god give you strength and comfort and peace. I'm so sorry for what I know your going through. with deepest sympathies,
