“ Pat was one of the kindest, most caring women I have ever had a pleasure of knowing. My life is better for having had her be a part of it. My boys remember visiting Pat and George whenever we were in Ohio. Pat always made a cake and we always took a picture of the boys and Kailyn in the chair ❤️❤️ I will miss her very much. Sending loving thoughts and prayers to the family.

“ Pat was a wonderful person and will be greatly missed. She was always kind and sharing. When they were stationed overseas, wherever they were, Pat would send or bring back something from a that place. To the eight or nine year old farm boy that had never been further than Lake Michigan, it was a wonderful opening up of the outside world that I always appreciated. It was always an event when we got to see Pat.

Bob and I used to take George and Pat for pizza at Warren. Then we would go back to their apartment to have coffee with them. We really enjoyed talking with them. George was Bob's cousin. Barb McNally
