What a beautiful video tribute to Pat, who was a beautiful woman. I have great memories of riding horses with her in Southern Indiana. My sympathy. Louisa Didat

I worked with Pat at OSV and we became friends. I would run into her every once in a while at her church activities and enjoyed talking to her. Such a sweet person and so gracious. Enjoyed the video tribute to her also. God bless all of you! Mary Reust

“ Pat was a devoted follower of Jesus. She would strike up a conversation with a stranger if she felt led and share her faith. She loved people, serving on committees at church and helping to start and operate the former Shepherd's Food Pantry in Andrews for eight years. It was my pleasure to serve with her there. She was extremely proud of her daughters and grandchildren and I could see that they were quite devoted to her. We shared many laughs and tears but especially our growing faith in God. I wish to express my deepest sympathy to Pat's family.

“ Pat was a dear friend and horseback riding buddy in southern Indiana. She shared her horses with me until I got a horse of my own. We shared a love for animals. I'll never forget her rescuing Bella, her beautiful cat someone had dropped in our neighborhood. The day she had to put her horse down and I rushed to be with her only to seeing the geese flying up 150 that day carrying that horse's soul to heaven. Pat left us her best gifts, Erin and Dana. RIP my friend your job here is done.
