“ Dear Adams family, we are sorry for your loss. May God Comfort you and give you Peace. We met Phyllis in 1991, when she lived in an apartment on Flaxmill Road in Huntington. Phyllis was our neighbor. She told us about an a house for sale in Marion, Indiana, but at that time we had made plans to move to Northwest Indiana. She was a very nice person/neighbor. We moved away and four years later we moved back to Huntington. Due to some real estate problems, we thought, "I wonder if Phyllis' house is still for sale?" SO, we phoned Phyllis. One of her daughters answered and i asked this question: "Is that house in Marion still for sale ?" Her daughter answered "Yes." We son drove to Marion one snowy night with some family AND in that winter snow-scape we were attracted to the property at 203 North "E" Street. Loonnngggg story short...we have resided here since February, 1996. I visited with Phylliis in Huntington a couple times and then apparently she moved to Tennessee. One of her daughters may recall that phone call? God Bless and Keep you all.
