“ I didn't know Rae Lynn personally, but she was close to the people in Huntington that I know and she will be greatly missed by all that knew her. She was taken too early in life, but she will forever be in the hearts of the ones that loved her. Fly high Rae Lynn.

“ I remember when she was 4 or 5, I was over at The Cox's visiting and I would patiently sit while she painted my fingernails. I'm saddened by the loss. I know things are hard right now, hopefully things will get better.

“ Rae and I fell out of touch as often happens when people grow up, but we were pretty inseparable during elementary school days. Some of my best memories involve hanging out at her house, being dumb kids. I think of her fondly often. My whole heart goes out to her family. I wish I could be there to say goodbye. - Miracle
