“ So sorry to hear about Ray. He was proud of his garden and his yard and took good care of them. He was neighborly....clear up to passing on the same day as his neighbor,Homer Hiner . He never met a stranger,but he sure got mad if you disagreed with him!
Gonna miss you,Ray,and your good veggies 🍅

“ *Our deepest sympathy on your loss of Ray.
He was a good neighbor and friend. Always liked our talks together. Liked stopping by and getting his sweet corn,tomatoes,and other vegetables he had for sale. He will be greatly missed by everyone that knew him.*

“ Ray was a great neighbor. He and Homer checked out each others mowing jobs, each making sure their yards looked great, chopped and hauled wood from a fallen tree, cleaning up every little twig....and enjoyed those green beans, corn and tomatoes he always shared with us. Now they both leave us on the same day and both will be missed.
My regards to Ray's family.
